WILSON GOES TO SUMMER CAPITAL

Hopes for Favorable Culmination of Negotiations With Mexico.

RECEIVES ENCOURAGING NEWS

No Cause for Anxiety in Dispatches From Mexico City—President Will Keep in Touch With Situation.

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Wilson left Washington late today for the summer capital at Cornish, N. H., still hopeful of favorable culmination of the negotiations undertaken by this country to bring about peace in Mexico.

Although no affirmative action in either side had been reported up to the time of the President's departure, encouraging dispatches were received from Nelson O'Shaughnessy, in charge of the American embassy at Mexico City, bearing on the general situation. These reached the President a few hours before train time, and led him to determine upon a short rest over Labor Day.

Nothing in the advices from Mexico City gave the administration officials cause for particular anxiety, and it was the general conviction that a lull in the diplomatic exchanges would be beneficial to all concerned. The President, it is known, feels that good may come from an opportunity for the position of this government, as announced in his message of Wednesday, to "sink in."

Excitement subsiding over the exchange of proposals and replies would it was believed, lead to further negotiations between the officials of Mexico City and Mr. Lind, the presonal representative of this government.

Mr. Lind, it was asserted tonight had been instructed from Washington to continue to act at his own discretion as to whether he should await developments at Vera Cruz or return to Mexico City. Up to a late hour, no dispatches had been received at the state department from Mr. Lind, but Secretary Bryan, said, before leaving for an overnight trip in Pennsylvania, that he believed the envoy would remain in Vera Cruz tonight. Early in the day Mr. Bryan conferred with the President over the reply of Senor Gamboa, Mexican Minister of Foreign Affairs to Mr. Lind's second note.

They also considered a message sent by Mr. Lind to Washington yesterday afternoon. That these latest communications gave rise for hopeful expectations was freely admitted.

Mr. Lind, it was reported, probably would make the next move in the negotiations, which the President emphatically asserted in his message had not been closed, and could be resumed on the initiative of either nation. The view was expressed that the Gamboa reply to the second American note might actuate Mr. Lind to address a third note to the officials of the Huerta government. Acting at his own discretion, it was suggested that the American representative might forward a messaze to Mexico City from Vera Cruz before determining upon going to the Mexican capital in preson for a renewal of direct negotiations.

Before deciding to go to Cornish, President Wilson discussed the situation at length with cabinet officers and arrangements were made whereby he could be notified at once of any developments. Should anything happen to require his presence in Washington before Tuesday, he planned to return at a moment's notice. Mr Tumulty secretary to the President, remained in Washington tonight to be in direct touch with developments, planning to go to his New Jersey home tomorrow, however, upon the return of Secretary Bryan.

Hundreds of telegrams and letters reached the White House today from all parts of the country, expressing approval of President Wilson's message on Mexico. These were not made public, but the President is known to have been highly gratified at the sympathetic reception his course had received.

Americans Leave Mexico.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Reports to the State Department today continued to tell of the exodus of Americans from Mexico. From Tampico came news of large numbers gathering from adjacent states, and it was said hundreds were expected at Vera Cruz from the Southern interior states to await embarkation. While many probably will go to New Orleans and Galveston it is expected that not a few will seek safety in Cuba, while some will go to Europe.

Consul Letcher at Chihuahua reported that a train left that city yesterday bound for El Paso, carrying a party of Americans including 54 men, 28 women, 17 children and a number of other foreigners. He said, however, that owing to the condition of the tracks no forecast can be made of the time of their arrival at El Paso.

Other advices stated that 40 refugees who made their way from Durango to Vera Cruz were due to arrive in New Orleans tomorrow. Fourteen others on the steamer City of Mexico now are en route to the same city from Vera Cruz.

Situation Encouraging.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—"I am glad to say that the Mexican matter looks very encouraging at the present time, and I believe it is going to grow brighter every day," declared Secretary of State William J. Bryan today at Doylestown, where he delivered a lecture. "I anticipate no trouble, believing that good sense and judgment on the part of Mexico will eventually prevail."

When asked if it was true that President Huerta had requested John Lind, President Wilson's personal

NEW YORK STATE'S HANDS ARE TIED

In Fight to Secure Thaw's Return to Matteawan Asylum.

NO PROGRESS IN PROCEEDINGS

Fugitive Remains in Jail on Commitment Which Will Not Bring Him Into Court Until October. Jerome Active.

Sherbrooke, Que., Aug. 29.—New York State made no step forward today in its fight to return Harry K. Thaw to Matteawan asylum. He remains in the Sherbrooke jail on a commitment which will not bring him into court until the King's bench convenes in October. William Travers Jerome, conferring with Canadian Council, has been unable to secure the throwing of the bolt that detains him.

"Gentleman Roger" Thompson, erstwhile Times Square chauffeur, lounged about the hotel corridors this afternoon, lunched and dined near Jerome, wrote letters to friends, walked the streets unmolested, and kept silence as regards the Thaw case. He was released on $500 bail today on the double charge of having entered Canada "by sealth", and of having aided an undesirable, Thaw, to cross the border. He will be tried on these charges, barring further postponements, on Wednesday next.

Furnished with counsel by the Thaw family, and provided with spending money presumably from the same source, Thompson flatly and repeatedly refused to tell what transpired on and after the Sunday morning on which he drove Thaw away from the asylum.

District Attorney Conger and Sheriff Hornbeck, of Dutchess county, returned home today. They had waited here since Wednesday last, hoping Thaw would be turned over to the immigration authorities and be deported to Vermont. Jerome and Franklin Kennedy, representing the attorney general of New York, said tonight the plans are indefinite.

They conferred all afternoon trying to hit on means of getting Thaw out of jail, but without success.

The belief grew here today that disposition of the case rested soley with high Dominion officials, and that through them only could any move be made. There was a great deal of talk about New York's representatives trying to induce Alexis Dupuis, the Coaticook justice who committed Thaw, to quash the commitment, but so far as could be learned nothing came of it.

Thaw's lawyers, having succeeded in keeping him in jail and thus thwarting his deportation, are waiting for the other side to move. All indications presaged a long wait for Jerome, unless some higher up took a hand in the case.

In the parlor of his home at Coaticook, Justice of the Peace Dupuis frequently interrupted by Mrs. Dupuis, talked tonight of the attempts made to have him quash the Thaw commitment.

"I didn't think the commitment was regular when I signed it," said Dupuis. "But the sheriff who had Thaw was very anxious he should be held. They were so insistent that I allowed myself to be persuaded.

"On Wednesday some men who called themselves immigration authorities wanted me to go right to Sherbrooke, give Thaw a hearing and turn him loose. But I could not do that. I had a horse I wanted to sell that afternoon."

Mrs. Dupuis entered. She is taller than her husband.

"Let me tell you," said Mrs. Dupuis, "I'm for Thaw. I wouldn't hurt him for the world. My husband is not going to do anything hasty."

M'NEILL DENOUNCED JURY

Prominent Fayetteville Citizen Told What He Thought of Men Who Convicted Mim—Fined $100 and Cost.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Aug. 29.—Capt. James D. McNeill, one time president of the National Firemen's Association, for 22 years president of the North Carolina State Firement's Association, former State Senator from Gumberland county, and ex-mayor of Fayetteville, was fined $100 and the costs of the criminal libel action brought against him as a result of reflections on State Senator Q. K. Nimocks his political opponent, in Superior Court today.

Following the naming of the sentence by Judge Lyon, Captain McNeill arose and launched into a bitter denunciation of the jury which convicted him yesterday, ceasing only when Judge Lyon told him that he would not be allowed to criticise the jury.

Captain McNeill then objected to the fine and asked the judge to change it to a jail sentence. Judge Lyon sat prefectly still and it looked as if he were going to accede to the request but before he could do so, th convicted man arose and stated that on advice of his counsel, he would submit to the sentence already imposed.

RENEW ATTACK ON TARIFF BILL

Republicans Fight Provision Permitting Disregard of Civil Service Laws in Administering Income Tax Laws.

Washington Aug. 29.—Republican attack on the Tariff bill in the Senate today centered about the provision that would permit civil service laws to be disregarded in employing inspectors, Deputy Collectors and agents to administer the new income tax laws. The Democratic majority was charged freely with trying to break down the civil service laws and open up new avenues of political favoritism.

Republican Senators of all factions united in their efforts to have civil service extended over the new employes, but on the closest vote of the day, they were defeated, 37 to 32 on an amendment offered by Senator Lodge. Senator Hoke Smith, who defended the bill for the Democrats, declared it was impossible under the present civil service exminations to get men qualified to administer the income tax law.

"A bright boy out of high school could pass the examination" he said, "but men of 40 or 45 equipped from business experience to do such work probably would fail."

A letter from the chairman of the civil service commission was read by Senator Sterling, saying the commission could readily fill the new positions.

Another outburst of Democratic "insurgency" came today when Senator Hitchcock, Democrat, denounced the methods of the party caucus that framed the Tariff bill. He declared the binding rule of the caucus had "made a farce of the debates" in the Senate.

Senator Hitchcock introduced an amendment which the caucus had rejected for a penalty tax on trusts. It was defeated 41 to 30.

The Democratic members of the Finance committee began sessions tonight to readjust the income tax, to meet the demands of insurgent Democrats who have asked for an increase in the "additional tax" on large incomes. Other contested subjects also will be disposed of.

It is expected that a Democratic Senate caucus will be held early next week to settle all questions in the Tariff bill.

Senator Simmons, chairman of the Finance committee reiterated today his belief that the measure will be passed before the end of next week.

Senator Norris, of Nebraska, gave notice at the end of today's session that he would offer an amendment later proposing an insurance tax as part of the bill.

Upon the suggestion of Senator La-Follette, the bill was amended so as to allow state officials to have access to the income returns of corporations. By a vte of 28 to 38, the Senate rejected Senator Jones amendment to permit Alaska to retain the income tax collected in that territory.

SECRETARIES CONFER.

In Regard to Army-Navy Football Game This Fall.

Washington, Aug. 29.—It took Secretary Daniels and Acting Secretary of War Breckenridge very few minutes today to decide to take a hand in the settlement of the question as to whether there is to be any navy-army football game this fall. After a very brief conference they announced that they would ask the directors of the respective academy athletic associations to come to Washington Wednesday to discuss the situation.

Both army and navy officers here expressed the opinion that the game would be played as usual. Secretary Daniels received a telegram from Secretary Garrison approving the proposed conference.

WOMAN'S HORRIBLE DEATH

Mrs. Betsy Ann Keith of Creedmoor Killed in Elevator at Durham—Skull Crushed Between Car and Floor.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Durham, N. C., Aug. 29.—Mrs Betsy Ann Keith was crushed to death in the Durham Loan and Trust Building today by a descending elevator in the presence of her daughter, Miss Meta Keith, and others.

Mrs. Keith had accompanied her daughter to the fourth floor of the Trust Building to Dr. Joe Graham's office where the young lady was undergoing treatment and on the way down the elevator stopped at the third floor to take on a passenger, Mr. W. B. Kuker. Just as the car started downward Mrs. Keith attempted to step off, probably thinking she had reached the ground floor.

The elevator boy, Cheatham Stone, caught hold of the lady and tried to pull her back with one hand while he attempted to stop the car with the other. The lady's weight, however, was too much for the boy, and her head was caught between the floor of the building and the descending elevator.

A Sickening Tragedy.

The head was mashed into a pulp, the neck broken and brains and blood scattered over the floor and elevator. The daughter Miss Meta, who witnessed her mother's hideous death, was prostrated by the sickening spectacle, and had to be carried to a doctor's office for attention. Dr. Graham was summoned as soon as the accident occured, but Mrs. Keith was already dead, death having been instantaneous.

Dr. A. G. Jordan, coroner, was summoned and the coroners jury attributed the death to accident and no one was blamed. The elvator boy was not found at fault. Mrs. Keith was the wife of Mr. Jerry Keith, a prominent farmer of Wake county, and was about 60 years old. The remains were turned over to an undertaker and were later sent to her home near Credmoor.

He recommended the enactment of nearly 150 measure, including several appropriation bills not disposed of at the last regular session, six bills to enforce prohibition, an anti-pass bill, and many local bills.

New York State authorities made no progress in their efforts to secure the return of Harry K. Thaw to Matteawan asylum.

Senate Republicans waged war on the provision of the tariff bill that would permit disregard of civil service laws in employing inspectors to administer the new income tax laws.

COMMISSIONER MAKES GOOD

Col. W. H. Osborne Has Put Revenue Bureau on Business Basis—Saved Million and Half Dollars—Appointments.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 29.—After having served as Commissioner of Internal Revenue for 120 days, given the "glad hand" to an average of 75 people a day, or an equivalent to 12,000 men, among them being people from all parts of the United States, and the Hawaiian and Philippine Islands, Commissioner Osborne left tonight for Greensboro where he will spend a week in resting up and tramping over his farm lands.

Commissioner Makes Good.

It will be interesting to people of Greensboro, Oxford and Durham, in particular, and the State as a whole, to know that "Bill" Osborne has already made good as Commissioner of Internal Revenue. In conversation with some of his New York friends a few days ago, Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo and his assistant, John Skelton Williams, said that "Bill" Osborne has put the Internal Revenue Bureau on a business basis for the first time in memory of man.

Saves Million and Half.

In addition to weeding out the "drones" and putting active men in their places, Commissioner Osborne has not been unmindful of the government's interest in the way of collecting revenues. The colonel handed down a decision some time ago in the Union Soakage case whereby he saved the government at a single stroke of the pen a little over a million and a half dollars.

Former commissioners have allowed the soakage concerns to buy up barrels that have been used for whiskey, put them through a steaming process, extract from one to two gallons of whiskey from them and refuse to pay the government the tax. Commissioner Osborn ruled that this whiskey should be taxed, and he taxed it. As a result, Uncle Sam has a million and a half more dollars in the treasury this year than last.

Fourth-Class Postmasters.

The following fourth-class postmasters have been appointed: Bunyan Stansel, at Allenton, Robeson county; J. T. Delbridge at Elams; Warren county; Daniel R. Edwards at Exum, Brunswick county; Wm. A. Perry at Otila, Currituck county; and Julia M. Robinson, at Powellton, Richmond county.

George A. Bellamy and wife of Wilmington; John L. Patterson, of Roanoke Rapids, and Mrs. P. B. Wright, of Salisbury, are here.

Mrs. Hannibal L. Godwin and two charming daughters, Misses Ruby and Mattie Bell Godwin, are visiting Representative Godwin.

The Southern Furniture Manufacturing Company, of High Point, today withdrew its complaint with the Inter-State Commerce Commission asking for a reduction of furniture rates to Eastern territory. The complaint was withdrawn because the Southern Railway and connecting lines have asked to put into effect rates on furniture lower than those originally asked for by the High Point Furniture Company.

That Glenn Job.

"I cannot say postively what job Mr. Glenn has been offered," said a high official of the Federal Government tonight. "I do know, however, that the former Governor has been offered a good job. I have been told that the place offered Mr. Glenn is on the Philippine Commission. There is no doubt, however, that he will land a good berth."

It is not at all improbable that the Philippine Commission is what has been offered the former North Carolina Governor. A Philippine Commissionship pays a salary of $11,000 a year and with commissions and allowances for rent, etc. It is said the job runs up to nearly $16,000 a year. Such a place, Mr. Glenn's friends say, would suit him very well.

M'DERMOTT DENIES MULHALL CHARGES

Characterizes Allegations of Ex-Lobbyist as "Dreams, Just Dreams."

ADMITS BORROWING MONEY

Illinois Representative Denies Ever Having Attempted to Influence Congressional Action on "Loan Shark" Bill.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Representative J. T. McDermott, of Illinois, testifying before the House lobby committee today, put in a categorical denial of the charges against him by M. M. Mulhall, former lobbyist for the National Association of Manufacturers, and I. H. McMichael, former chief page of the House.

The charge that he had received $2,000 from a brewers' association in his 1910 campaign he characterized as "Dreams, just dreams."

He admitted having borrowed large sums of money from George D. Horning, a local pawn broker, "as a friend."

Mulhall and McMichael testified that McDermott boasted of having received $7,500 from local pawn brokers to work against the Federal "loan shark" law. McDermott declared that at times he had owed Horning as much as $10,000.

McDermott denied ever having attempted to influence Congressional action on the "loan shark" bill. He also denied having planned with Mulhall and McMichael to have the Mulhall charges published. He denied Mulhall's charge that he had forged a $250 check of Harold F. McCormick's, and gave his version of the circumstances.

Representative McDermott's examination before the House committee was interrupted, to allow James Emery, counsel for the National Association of Manufacturers, to testify that he had heard Mulhall mention McDermott only in a casual way with other members of the House. Emery said he never knew McDermott until after the publication of the Mulhall charges.

In concluding his direct testimony, McDermott swore that a loan of $500 from Hugh F. Harvey, of the Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, was purely a personal loan, and had no connection with the Jones-Weeks Liquor bill, then in Congress.

He denied that he had ever allowed Mulhall to use his official franc; that he had tried to intimidate I. H. McMichael and change his testimony at the hearing; that he had given Mulhall information as to what was going on in the House; that he had been entertained by Mulhall; that he ever secured or borrowed a dollar from Mulhall, and that he ever knew that Mulhall had a key to his room at the capitol.

The committee began the cross-examination of McDermott, which will continue tomorrow.

PRAISE FOR PEACE MOVEMENT

Carnegie Unveils Bust of Late Sir William Randal Cremer in Hall of New Peace Palace—Demonstration.

The Hague, Aug. 29.—The ceremony of the unveiling today by Andrew Carnegie of a bust of the late Sir William Randal Cremer in the Hall of Justice of the new Peace Palace, was the occasion for a great demonstration in favor of the peace movement. Sir William Randal Cremer was the originator of the inter-parliamentary conferences, a winner of the Nobel Peace prize and for 37 years secretary of the International Arbitration League.

The hall was crowded for the ceremony. Among those in attendance were members of the Carnegie endowment for international peace, the international arbitration league and the inter-parliamentary union. Mr. Carnegie was loudly cheered as he entered the hall, and his speech was frequently punctuated with applause. He made a powerful plea for peace and praised Emperor William, of Germany, for having reigned 25 years without staining his hands in blood.

The Right Hon. Thomas Burt, dean of the British House of Commons, replied to Mr. Carnegie. He said that all things pointed favorably to the realization of Cremer's dream of universal peace, despite the Balkan war. "The barbaric horrors of this war," Mr. Burt added, "would arouse a world-wide feeling of revulsion and bring the peace advocates nearer their objective."

Lord Weardale, president of the Inter-Parliamentary Union, eulogized Mr. Carnegie, who, he said, had provided Cremer with means which enabled him to accomplish so much in behalf of the peace movement.

Earlier in the day Sir Alan Johnstone, British minister to The Netherlands, unveiled a bust of King Edward VII. He paid an eloquent tribute to the late British monarch for his work in behalf of the maintenance of peace abroad and for the submission to arbitration of disputes between capital and labor.

VISCOUNT HALDANE REACHES AMERICA

British Chancellor Breaks a Long-Established Precedent.

TO ADDRESS BAR ASSOCIATION

English Statesman Freely Discusses Questions of the Day With Newspaper Men—Praises American Development.

New York, Aug. 29.—Viscount Haldane, the first Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain to leave his country since Cardinal Wolsey went to France 400 years ago, arrived here today on the steamship Lusitania for a flying visit of five days in this country and Canada.

The Lord High Chancellor, whose position in England corresponds to that of Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, is here as a guest of the American Bar Association before which he will deliver an address at its annual meeting in Montreal next Monday. Tonight he was entertained at a dinner given in the hall of the association by C. A. Severance, of St. Paul. His itinerary includes visits to West Point and Albany.

Previously warned that he might expect to be interviewed by American newspaper men on his arrival in New York, the chancellor greeted a delegation of them who boarded the Lusitania and submitted to another interview when he reached his hotel.

Lord Haldane freely discussed many questions of the day, declared that he was in favor of woman suffrage, prophesied that a millenium of peace was far off, said the relations between Germany and England were never more cordial, praised the intellectual growth of the United States and predicted that home rule for Ireland would soon be an accomplished fact.

Lord Haldane chuckled when the question of woman suffrage was brought up.

"Yes, I am a suffragetist," he said, "but I do not approve of the militant suffragettes. You are fortunate to have no militant suffragettes in this country, and I sincerely hope the militant idea will not gain a foothold here."

The fact that the Lord Chancellor visited the German Emperor at the height of the ill-feeling between Germany and England over the armament question, was made the basis for a question as to his opinion of the present relations between Germany and England.

"Our relations are constantly growing better," he said, "especially since the adjustment of the Balkan situation. In fact, there has been much better feeling displayed between the two great groups of European powers as the result of the Balkan situation in which they have worked together. The result augurs a much better feeing in the future.'

Speaking of home rule for Ireland, he said:

"Home rule was never nearer adoption than it is today, and I believe it will soon be an accomplished fact."

The Chancellor refused to discuss the Mexican situation except to say that he was "confident that the United States would deal with the question in the broad way in which it had treated other great problems."

He said that he had made a close study of the constitution of the United States, the decisions of Chief Justice Marshall and of American court procedure, but had been greatly enlightened on the subjects by Supreme Court Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, a fellow passenger during his voyage.

"I think English law," he said, "has fewer technicalities than the American law. You have more opportunities for appeal than we do in England. We are very sparing in this particular. This is especially true of criminal procedure."

Lord Haldane was accompanied by his sister, Miss Elizabeth Haldane, and Sir Kenneth Muir MacKenzie, clerk of the crown.

The party was met at the pier by a reception committee of the American Bar Association, which included Francis Rawle, of Philadelphia, chairman; Jacob M. Dickinson, former Secretary of War; Judge Alton B. Parker, Francis Lynde Stetson and C. A. Severance. They escorted the chancellor on a sight seeing tour of the city.

CAMINETTI TRIAL.

Much Progress in Case Yesterday. No Session of Court Today.

San Francisco, Aug. 29.—The trial of F. Drew Caminetti rolled swiftly forward today. The witnesses and the evidence of the government were with few exceptions identically the same as in the case of Maury I. Diggs, convicted of violating the Mann White Slave law.

Marsha Warrington had the stand for the greater part of the day and her testimony went to show that Caminetti was guilty of assisting in transporting her and Lola Norris from Sacramento.

The effort of the defense was to prove that Caminetti had played a passive part.

When a brief re-direct examination shall have been finished next Tuesday Miss Warrington's ordeal will be over. Lola Norris will follow her on the stand. There will be no session of court tomorrow.

RAIN CANCELLED 3 GAMES

Cleveland Defeated The Browns Three To Nothing—All Other Games Were Postponed On Account of Rain.

Storms and showers which reached over almost the entire country yesterday, seriously interfered with operations on the American circuit yesterday, no less than three of the four scheduled games having been called off on account of rain. The second New York-Philadelphia game was postponed, as well as the Red Sox-Senator game at Boston. The Detroit-Chaicago game was also crabbed by the brutalities of J. Pluvius.

Cleveland defeated the St. Louis Browns in their first game, the score being three to nothing. Cy Falkenburg's speedy curves being unsolvable by the Browns, while the Naps tallied three runs. Falkenbery struck out ten men, five of them when his would have counted.

Scoring Rules To Be Revised

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The suggestion of President Comiskey, of the Chicago Americans, that the playing rules be revised next Winter at a convention of managers, umpires and newspaper men was endorsed today by President Murphy, of the local National league team.

"It has been my belief for several years that the playing rules are badly in need of re-codifying," said Murphy. "It looks especially bad to have the rules governing balks interpreted differently in two major leagues.

"I believe that a committee comprising all major league managers and umpires and leading scorers would be unwieldy. A dozen men would do the work better. I think the meeting should be financed by the National Commission as the experts would be performing a great service. The playing rules could be thoroughly discussed and overhauled to the great benefit of the National game in from ten days to two weeks, I believe."

ALLIGATORS BY MAIL.

Sent by Parcel Post Thursday From Newbern to Whiteville.

(Newbern Journal 29th.)

"Two live alligators which were a few days ago presented to B. B. Davenport, of this city, by William Brinson, of Arapahoe, constituted a part of the parcel post mail which left consigned to a gentleman at Whiteville, N. C., to whom they had been sold.

"The gators were very young, being not more than twelve inches in length but regardless of their extreme youth they were not lacking in activity and the clerks in the post office soon learned that the contents of the package in which they were enclosed.

"This is not the first time, alligators have been handled by the clerks in the local postoffice. Soon after the new parcel post system went into effect a 'gator more than two feet in length made a short stop here in being transferred from some inland town to a consignee in a Northern city. Anyway the clerks in the local postoffice have become accustomed to handling packages containing many strange objects and it is a hard matter to fease them."

UNION STATION AT DUNN.

Railroads Make Proposition—Superior Court Next Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., Aug. 29.—At a meeting of a committee from the Chamber of Commerce, selected to handle the question of a union depot for Dunn, and several of the leading business men of the town held Wednesday night, it was decided to accept the proposition made by the Atlantic Coast Line and the Durham & Southern, to build a modern station at the junction of the two roads.

When the matter was first brought up there was opposition by some of the citizens, but they have at last decided that a union station is needed, even if not located just where some of the opposition wanted it. The railroads have agreed to submit plans and specifications and build a modern structure.

On next Monday Judge Daniels will convene a two weeks' term of court in Lillington. The first week will be for the trial of criminal cases. The criminal docket is not very large as the two Recorders' courts in the county dispose of most of this class of litigation. The civil docket is a large one.

At a recent meeting of the Chamber of Commerce and the Harnett County Good Roads' Association, two delegates from each township were appointed to meet in Lillington next Monday to propose and select plans for a good roads campaign in the county with the idea of building roads under the new township law passed by the last General Assembly for Harnett. Some townships are hardly ready for a bond issue, but all the eastern part of the county is demanding roads and several townships will begin an active campaign to build roads from Dunn to Lillington and the other towns in this part of the county.

A movement is on foot by some of our progressive citizens to organize a building and loan association and help those who wish to erect homes. About 100 houses have been built here in the past year and many others are in the course of construction. The demand for houses is such that an intimation that a man is going to move brings in applications months ahead.

The Sanford Express: "A gentleman was in town last week trying to interest our people in buying lots on Carolina Beach, below Wilmington, on which to build Summer homes. Carolina Beach is being developed and efforts are being made to make it a great resort. The company which is developing the property wishes to sell lots only to those who will build cottages on them. It seems that the gentleman who was hunting purchasers got very little encouragement here. He discovered that our people are interested more in the mountains than the seashore. Sanford was well represented in the mountains this Summer. Some of our people think of building Summer homes at some of the assembly resorts."

PHILLIES SECOND STRAIGHT

Phillies Take Second of Series From New York—Cards Win From Reds—Pittsburg Loses to Chicago.

Now, when it is eternally too late, Charlie Dooin's Phillies seem to have taken on a stride that, a little earlier in the season, would have assured them the National League bunting. They persecuted the Giants unmercifully in their last series together, and yesterday they took the second straight game from the New York Giants by a 3 to 2 score. Big Jeff Tesreau allowed the Phillies only four hits in the entire game, while Camnitz, for the Dooinites, allowed seven hits, the solution to the question being that the Giants were unable to produce them in groups large enough to push men around the bags.

The Chicago Cubs defeated the Pittsburg Pirates 6 to 1, and the St. Louis Cardinals, by bunching hits, defeated the Cincinnati Reds in their opener by a 3 to 2 score. The Brooklyn-Boston game was postponed on account of wet grounds.

Phils Took Second Straight.

Philadelphia, Aug. 29.—Philadelphia again defeated New York today in the second game of the series which went into 10 innings before the winning run was scored, the final score being 3 to 2.

Philadelphia	200	000	0001	3	4	1

Cards Take First.

Cincinnati, Aug. 29.—St. Louis, by bunching hits won the first game of the series from Cincinnati today 3 to 2. Both Sallee and Packard pitched good ball. Packard allowed the visitors only five hits.

Pittsburg, Aug. 29.—Misjudged pop flies and one or two timely hits gave Chicago five runs off McQuillan in the fourth inning this afternoon and Pittsburg lost 6 to 1.

WITH THE MOVIES

The Grand has prepared something extra nice for today, in anticipation especially of the giant Saturday crowds. Today's offering will be one of the best week-end bills ever presented, led by Lubin's grand triumph, "Her Only Boy". It is the story of a wayward son, a stern father and a loving mother. Driven from home the boy turns bandit. He holds up the stage and robs the mail. The first letter he tears open is one from his mother, enclosing her picture. The sequel is sad, but stirring. Pathe has the leading fun picture on today in "Hannigan's Harem." Poor Hannigan takes too much aboard and then what he dreams is a big howl for the best kinds of laughs. There will be other films and plenty of new music also on today's menu.

Bijou's Week-End.

This is going to be a big field day at the popular Bijou. It is going to be one of the biggest, merriest and in every other way fine days the Bijou has hundreds and hundreds of patrons have ever known. Kalem's sweetest, as well as latest hit, "The American Princess," is the topliner, and no less a clever and popular artist will be found in the title role than pretty Alice Joyce. It is a tale of International affairs, with an attache of an American embassy sharing the star role with the Princess. Stars are thick today at the Bijou, because Mr. G. M. Anderson, the greatest of all romantic actors, will also appear in the title role of "Broncho Billy and the School Ma'am's Sweetheart." There will be other charming features on today's programme, of course.

CONGRESSMAN DAVIS RESIGNS.

To Take Up Duties of Solicitor General of the United States.

Washington, Aug. 29.—John W. Davis, member of Congress from the first West Virginia district, today sent his resignation to Governor Hatfield. The resignation is effective today. Governor Hatfield is attending the conference of Governors in Colorado, but has previously announced that he sees no reason for not calling a special election to elect a successor to Mr. Davis. Mr. Davis resigned to take up the duties of solicitor general of the United States.

Tesreau Will Star In World's Series

Despite the fact that big Jeff Tesreau, a giant of the Ozark Mountains before he became a New York Giant, has not been going any too well this season, Manager McGraw, the smart and brainy leader of the probable winners of the National League bunting, is pinning his faith in the big twirler, whom he believes will prove one of the stars of the world's series during the coming Fall.

Tesreau joined the New York club in the Fall of 1911. He was not given much work that Fall, but when the Giants went to Marlin to open their 1912 training season the big mountaineer was taken in charge by Wilbert Robinson, McGraw's chief adviser and coacher of young pitchers, and before the camp was three weeks old great things were predicted for Tesreau. Before joining the Giants, "Big Jeff" performed with the Shreveport club in the Texas-Oklahoma League.

He made good all of his advance notices by pitching winning ball for McGraw all of last season. In fact, it was Tesreau's work, along with that of the famous Mathewson and Marquard, that piloted the New York machine safely over the National League goal. He won and lost a game each during the 1913 championship against the Boston Red Sox, his victory having been witnessed by a brother who had traveled all the way from Seattle, Wash., to see him perform in a world series game.

Tesreau is a popular fellow among his fellow players, and his quaint humor and stories of bear hunts and the like in the Ozark Mountains do much toward keeping McGraw's men in a good humor when things on the diamond appear to be a little bad for them.

The big right-hander has the honor this season of leading the National League flingers as to strike-outs. He also leads the league in the issuance of passes, a record which he does not care about retaining.

McGraw figures that with Tesreau pitching the kind of ball of which he is capable, and with Mathewson and Marquard, to say nothing of Demaree, all in first-class shape, his New York Giants should experience little difficulty in grabbing the big end of the series with the Philadelphia Athletics when the two clubs battle for the world's championship in October.

EASY GAME FOR CHADBOURN.

Defeats Whiteville in Slow Game Yesterday—Lamb's Pitching.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Chadbourn, N. C., Aug. 29.—Chadbourn defeated the slow Whiteville aggregation on the latter's grounds this afternoon by a score of 7 to 2. Lamb for Chadbourn had great smoke, and had Whiteville at his mercy durChadbourn team featured by excellent ing the entire game. The entire hitting, base running and fielding. The game might have been close had Pitcher Barefoot, from Hallsboro, been properly supported by the Whiteville team.

Lamb for Chadbourn struck out 12 men and allowed only four scattered hits. Barefoot, for Whiteville, struck out 10 men and allowed 12 hits and four of them coming in the last inning for extra bases.

Batteries: Chadbourn, Lamb and Tate; Whiteville, Barefoot and Mr. Lumsden; umpire I. B. Tucker, who made just decision on both sides.

W. Johnson A Hurling Freak; Doesn't Try To Fool Batters

(By Bill Bailey.)

Chicago, Aug. 29.—Walter Johnson, marvel of the Senatorial pitching staff, not only is one of the greatest twirlers who ever stepped on a slab, but he is a hurling freak.

He is the only pitcher I ever looked at who apparently didn't care whether the batter knew what was coming or not. There may be other twirlers who tell the batter in advance what is coming when they are so far ahead that it makes no difference, or so far behind that the game is a joke, but this Johnson does it right along. He even does it when the game is close.

He beat Jim Scott 2 to 1 last Sunday on the South Side. It's very true that Johnson had to possess much luck to get the verdict, which gave him his 14th straight win. With two on and two out, Ping Bodie lost a fly ball in the sun and permitted two runs to count. Those two runs gave the Senators the victory. But that isn't the burden of this story.

This story is of Johnson as a pitcher, and it isn't based upon that single game. Did you notice how he pitched to Chase in the first round?

Heady Work on Slab.

Berger reached first because of Morgan's error and went to second on Lord's infield out. Chase trod to the plate. Now a base hit would have put Berger across and the Sox would have had a lead of one run. Mind you, this first game of the series was a fight for a run. Both managers figured that one run would win.

Chase knew very well that Johnson was going to stick that first ball over the plate. And Chase knew just as well that he was going to step into it and drive it out for a base hit if he could. Likewise, this Johnson person out on the slab knew that Hal would step into it. Did he put it anywhere except over the plate? He did not. If he had possessed a rifle of a bore that shot a baseball he couldn't have put it nearer the center of the plate.

"One strike," howled the umpire.

The next ball was in the same place, and Hal swung again.

"Two strikes," howled the ump.

Then Johnson pulled the unexpected. He started a curve ball for the plate and Hal swung. It broke wide and the first sacker fanned on a near wild pitch.

But the first two times that Chase swung he knew exactly what was coming. Yet he couldn't hit. Why? It was the tremendous speed that the elongated twirler was using.

"Kidded" Ping Bodie Out.

I say there may be other twirlers who don't care whether the batter knows what is coming or not. But they are mighty scarce.

Bodie came up in the sixth. He had just lost that fly ball in the sun and was feeling pretty bad, so Johnson began to "kid" him.

"Here's a good one,' said the Washington twirler.

"One strike," howled the ump. But Johnson had kept the faith. The ball was square across the plate. The only trouble was that it was a bit too fast.

"Well, you didn't hit that one, so I'll give you another chance," laughed Johnson.

"Two strikes," howled the ump.

Yes, it was straight across. The only trouble was that Ping's eye wasn't quick enough to telegraph Ping's brain that it was time to swing that club.

Yes, Ping struck out. But telling is quite a habit with this Johnson. He tells you what's coming, and it comes. The only trouble is that you are no better off than if he handed you the "double cross."

JUDGE CONNOR TO PRESIDE.

Not a Single Capital Case in Wilson Court, But Docket is Heavy.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wilson, N. C., Aug. 29.—When the Superior Court convenes for the trial of criminal cases next Monday, Wilson people will enjoy the presence of Judge George W. Connor, on the bench in his home town for the first time since his appointment. On the other hand, Judge Connor will find a very heavy docket—up to this time 149 cases are ready for the opening of the term.

Without a single capital case, the people of the county, and the town as well, feel gratified, and a study of the docket shows but few serious cases. In many of the cases the charges are retailing, concealed weapons and assaults. In addition, the last grand jury returned true bills against the residents of the "red light" district, and these warrants have been served and are for trial. The rumor is that the women will forfeit their bonds and a general exodus from that undesirable section of the town is expected.

Several cases will be watched with interest. Possibly the hardest fought legal battle will be the case of George Parker, a young white man of good connection, residing in the county, and charged with seduction under promise of marriage.

Linwood Tillery, charged with perjury, and Henry Moseley, charged with intimidating a witness, are two cases which grew out of an arrest for selling liquor, and the warrants were issued at the suggestion of Mayor Dickenson.

Of the entire docket, 86 cases are new, and 63 were continued from last term. Thirty-three cases are for selling liquor.

Editor's lines do not always fall in pleasant places. At Wilmington, N. C., the other day, Justice G. W. Bornemann was taxed with the costs for assaulting Editor J. S. Ramos, of the Live Wire while at Mebane, Editor J. O. Foy lost a tooth or two and was otherwise, battered and bruised by Mr. Chas. Oakley.—Winston Republican.

INVESTIGATE RAILROAD DEAL

Corporation Commission Sets September 8th for Hearing on Sale of C. F. & Y. V.—Act by Woodus Kellum, Esq.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 29.—The Corporation Commission today set September 8th for beginning the investigation of the sale of the old Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley, or Atlantic & Yadkin railroad, through receivership years ago and its partition between the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line.

This investigation is in compliance with the act of the recent Legislature, calling for such an investigation and report of findings to the attorney general in order that he may determine whether or not there are grounds on which the disposition of the road can be revoked on account of fraud or collusion.

The act was gotten through the Legislature through the efforts of Representative Woodus Kellum, of Wilmington, who had led an unsuccessful fight for a similar bill in the previous Legislature. Chairman Travis, of the commission, said today that the hearing will begin here September 8th, through the summoning of a number of railroad officials and others to testify, and developments at this hearing will determine whether or not the investigation will be very long drawn out and just what scope it will assume.

After the receiver's sale of the road some years ago, it was divided between the Southern and the Atlantic Coast Line, so that the Coast Line operates the division from Wilmington to Sanford and the Southern the section from Sanford to Mount Airy, this division, it is alleged, seriously crippling the service rendered to the people.

Central Hospital "Roasted."

In her last address before the State convention of farmers' wives just closed here, Mrs. Julian Heath, of New York, head of the National Housewives' League, passed a most scathing criticism upon the Central Hospital for Insane here. She said she visited the institution and was wonderfully pleased with the lovely and well kept grounds and splendid looking buildings. She was invited to go through the buildings and was especially interested in seeing the culinary department. But here she found the bread baked for dinner and supper stored where roaches and flies were crawling over it. She was shown the storage place for fresh meats and invited to go in, but the air was so foul she said that she would not have entered for anything. The vegetables were in much the same condition. She said she asked her guide how in the world food from such storage could be fed to human being. She declared that she saw meat being prepared for dinner and vermin were crawling over it and she asked if it were possible for people to eat such stuff. She said that she went into the kitchen and the cook was making corn cakes and had a greased rag in her hand to grease the pan and, struck with the appearance of it, she ask how long that rag had been used for this purpose. The reply was "about four months." Furthermore, declared Mrs. Heath, the cook seemed proud of the fact that she had been able to use this same rag so long for greasing the pans for cakes.

Mrs. Heath said that the conditions, however, were no worse than many similar institutions in the United States.

The North Carolina branch of the Housewives League was organized, while Mrs. Heath was here with Mrs. Chas. McKimmon as president; Mrs. J. G. Boylin, Wadesboro, as vice president; Mrs. C. R. Hudson, Raleigh, secretary.

The State farmers' convention, just adjourned here, went on record for the State Department of Agriculture to be allowed to erect an adequate and creditable building of its own to take the place of the old building on the south side of Capitol Square, that has outlived its usefulness. The resolutions specify that the department do not cripple its general work for the furtherance of farming interests, but expressed the view that the building can be provided out of the revenue of the department without crippling the general work for farmers.

LUTHERAN WOMEN MEET.

Twenty-eighth Annual Convention of Missionary Society at China Grove

(Special Star Correspondence.)

China Grove N. C., Aug. 29.—The 28th annual convention of the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Lutheran Synod of North Carolina convened today in the Lutheran Chapel at this place, Rev. C. A. Brown, paster.

The convention was called to order by the president, Mrs. R. L. Patterson, of Charlotte, and was formally opened by the use of the prescribed service for the opening. An unusually large number of delegates were present and after enrollment, the president read her report, which showed a marked growth and improvement in the work done by the convention, both in the home and foreign mission field.

It was noted that two lady missionaries have been elected for the field in Japan, namely Miss Mary Lou Bowers, of Newberry, S. C., and Miss Martha Akord, of Blountville, Tenn. They will enter their work early next year.

The president's report also stated that the Rev. L. G. Miller and family were at home on furlough and are spending sometime at Battle Creek Mich. Also that Mrs. Lippard and children were enroute home on furlough.

In view of the additional work that is to be done both in the home and foreign field an enlargement of the thank offering was urged by the president. All in all, the president's report shows an enlarged interest in missionary work and indicates that new work will be done next year.

The afternoon service was opened by a very impressive devotional service led by Mrs. M. O. Kregs, of Columbia, S. C. The president introduced Miss Constance Cline of Concord who will conduct the mission study class, using "The Call of the World." Reports from societies concluded the day's work.

RAN INTO WHITE BOY.

Negro Automobilist Arrested for Colliding With Bicyclist.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 29.—Local officers were notified yesterday about noon to look out for a negro driving a Hupmobile No. 7293 and to arrest on the charge of overspeeding and reckless driving in the town of Gibsonville where he had run into a white boy on a bicycle and seriously injured the boy. The negro got away while the injured boy was being treated in the drug store there. Hosea Teague was the negro's name and he said he was from Burlington. He told officers here when they arrested him upon his arrival that the affair was purely accidental and that he could not help running into him; that he ran into the boy as he was turning a corner at a slow speed. The negro will be carried back to Gibsonville for trial. The injuries to the white boy are not critical.

A regular two-weeks term of civil court will begin here Monday with Judge Shaw presiding. This will be the first of a series of continuous terms that will give Greensboro court for the entire month of September. The third week will be criminal. The fourth week is scheduled for civil cases but will probobly be changed by direction of the Governor to criminal term, so as to take care of the five murder cases on the calendar.

MRS. MANGES ESCAPES OPERATION

How She Was Saved From Surgeon's Knife by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mogadore, Ohio.—"The first two years I was married I suffered so much from female troubles and bearing down pains that I could not stand on my feet long enough todo my work. The doctor said I would have to undergo an operation, but my husband wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound first. I took three bottles and it made me well and strong and I avoided a dreadful operation. I now have two fine healthy children, and I cannot say too much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me."—Mrs. LEE MANGES, R. F. D. 10, Mogadore, Ohio.

Why will women take chances with an operation or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

It looks as if Sulzer and Tammany have had a dog fall.

Huerta has to keep on fighting because the other side won't stop.

When a man wants something he makes an effort to get it, if he has what is called "initiative."

The Republicans have chosen their Congressional Committee in order to observe the formalities in politics.

"What is the difference between Sulzer and Tammany?" inquires a contemporary. Why, Tammany is still at large.

A contemporary wants to know what has become of Henry Lane Wilson. Probably he hit the ceiling so hard he is sticking there yet.

Says a fashion journal: "Women will wear cutaway coats this Fall." Well, they'll help some if too much of the coat is not cut away.

Making a mountain out of a molehill is a light task for a few garrulous individuals who love to swap the exaggerations and prevarications of the day.

A New Orleans woman makes her husband pronounce chrysanthemum so she can tell whether he is in a condition to be introduced to her friends.

Mrs. Bryan's canning operations at home are a success. Meanwhile Secretary Bryan is doing his best to can President Huerta and preserve peace in Mexico.

It is said Chicago's policewomen make people move. Having seen their photographs in the papers, we move that the publishers be arrested for caricaturing the officers of the law.

A woman's idea of a loving and faithful husband is one who never forgets to water the flowers and empty the pan under the refrigerator when his wife goes to the seaside for a month.

We believe the rottenness of the primary in Todd has been greatly exaggerated. We are satisfied not over $12,000 was spent, and the whiskey consumed would not exceed 300 gallons.—Elkton (Ky.) Times.

Says the New Orleans States: "An Englishman visiting this country says Americans do not know how to sit up." Did he ever suddenly say "dollar" and then watch the immediate result.

Henpecked husbands should stand for the secret ballot if it comes to equal rights for women. They can vote to suit themselves and then make cut like they voted the way the lady voters wanted them to vote.

The Republican party announces that it is going to appeal to the reason of the people. We hate to discourage it, but we don't see how it can do so after so many investigations and exposures.

Those nations which have civil war when two men want to rule should look at the way New York does. Two men are claiming that they are governor and yet the New Yorkers go right on with their business and leave it all to the courts.

"First, to thine own self be true, and it follows, as the night the day, that thou cans't not then be false to any man," or have your coco turned by such a mere bauble of fashion as a pretty slit skirt. "Honi soit qui mal y pense," and also "an honest shoemaker can take the measure of a pretty foot and think nothing of it."

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer makes this note: "Mr. Wade H. Harris, editor of The Observer, who has been out of commission for more than a week, expects to leave the Presbyterian Hospital Sunday night. It will be several days later, however, when he returns to his desk." The Star regrets to hear that Editor Harris has been indisposed for even a brief time. We hope he will soon be himself and come where the salt breezes blow. The first "R" month is hereabouts.

SOUTHPORT READY FOR SHIPS.

Having secured a railroad for inland transportation, Southport is now in a position to utilize ocean transportation by reason of the new terminals of the Wilmington, Brunswick and Southern railroad. Mr. W. E. Glenn, the contractor, has completed the railroad pier and wharf at the foot of Rhett street, one of the most advantageous locations on the fine harbor at Southport.

The new terminal consists of a pier which extends 340 feet out to deep water. It is 27 feet in width and is floored inside and outside the railroad tracks that extend out on it to the wharf. At the end of the pier a substantial wharf extends a length of 160 feet along the channel, the pier and wharf forming what builders call a "T" There are ship bumpers at the end of the wharf, and the water there is 25 feet deep, exclusive of the tidal rise. Thus, a steamship or sailing vesel of considerable size can be berthed at the terminal, while smaller draft vessels can tie up alongside the pier. If the necessity arises the channel along the wharf can be dredged to thirty feet or more to meet the needs of commerce. At present a ship four hundred feet long and drawing nearly twenty-five feet of water can unload at the wharf.

Contractor Glenn will at once erect at the W. B. & S. terminals a warehouse 24 by 48 feet in dimensions, so that when it is completed early this Fall, Southport will be ready for commerce. With deep water and so commodious a harbor, it was curious that Southport could not avail herself of ocean transportation. However, the necessary ship terminals were lacking, but now that Southport has a pier and commodious wharf, and that other prerequisite for sommerce, a railroad, one more port on the South Atlantic is ready for business.

Southport's first ship with a cargo will inaugurate a new era at the ocean outlet of the Cape Fear ocean gateway. It follows as a matter of course that some ship will soon be taking on a cargo of lumber at Southport and it will soon be followed by ships bringing and coming for freight. Doubtless a considerable amount of lumber, crossties and shingles will go to Southport, for shipment to New York and other ports, since the new shipping point is available to most of the saw mills in eastern North Carolina.

The Star has often urged the necessity of ample water terminals, if this ocean gateway would be in a position to handle commerce to advantage. A port without proper water terminals would be like a railroad without a train. It would be there but would be of no commercial use without the factilties for docking ships and handling cargoes. The more and better the harbor terminals at Wilmington and Southport, the better prepared the port will be to increase the commerce of the Cape Fear ocean gateway, so that by adding one more terminal and then others, the more available becomes the port for use by the entire State of North Carolina.

The State should regard it as significant that Southport is to be opened to commerce through the enterprise and operations of the Wilmington, Brunswick and Southern Railroad. Some idea of the commodiousness of the harbor there may be had when it is stated that it has a natural anchorage basin six miles long and from 30 to 60 feet deep, covering a water area of from a half mile to three miles in width.

The next thing for us to do now is to secure the construction of a breakwater at the Cape Fear bar, so we can get a ship passagewey from 35 to 40 feet in depth. We ought to take steps in that direction right away, and meanwhile hurry forward the work on a 30-foot channel to Wilmington.

"We" means particularly us and also the people of North Carolina, for they had better wake up to the fact that what North Carolina needs in her business is a deep water port. Virginia has one. Look what deep water at Norfolk has done for freight rates in Virginia!

Please consider that right here we explode a ton of dynamite to wake up the people of North Carolina.

CHARLESTON'S PORT BOOSTERS.

Charleston has been sending out port boosters, two together, who go in various directions and into different States, as the Charleston Post says, for the purpose of "boosting the facilities of Charleston as a port for Panama trade." These boosters have gone out under the auspices of the Charleston Chamber of Commerce, which has a plan of great scope to develop the commercial possibilities of that port. A brace of Charlestonians who have just returned from a booster trip to the middle West, were collector of the port, Fred C. Peters and Secretary Snell, of the Chamber of Commerce. The Post interviewed Collector Peters and our esteemed contemporary says:

"Mr. Peters is enthusiastic over the trip. With Mr. Snell, the customs collector visited Pittsburg, Wheeling and a few other places in West Virginia and then spent most of the time in touring the more important cities and trade centers of Ohio. The idea was to cover a different route from that of Messrs. McLeod and Pringle in presenting the resources and advantages of the port of Charleston for the Panama canal trade, and the need of lower freight rates.

"'We were well received everywhere that we went,' said Mr. Peters. 'We could not have had a more cordial reception among people of our particular section than we got on our trip West. They not only gave us a pleasant hearing but they were especially hospitable and we were made to feel at home in strange places and the very cordiality of our reception helped us in the pressentation of the advantages of Charleston as the port of the South Atlantic coast for the handling of the Panama business.'

"Mr. Peters went on to say that the trip was not particularly well timed for the meeting of many of the business people of the various cities for there as well as in this section, many business people take the summer time for their vacations and in consequence there were no especially large meetings at any place. This fact did not interfere with a full presentation of Charleston's claims, however, Mr. Peters explained for in every place there were many reprsntative business people at the hadquarters of the various trade organizations and Mr. Snell and himself always had an audience. The distribution of advertising literature helped the cause and Mr. Peters said that considerable interest was manifested in the presentation of the matter.

"Business people would give them an attentive hearing, ask questions and otherwise manifest a lively interest in all that the Charleston representatives had to say. Mr. Peters is certain that these trips will prove of great benefit to Charleston. The good results are already showing and will become more manifest with time."

Charleston's third touring committee will be Messrs. J. D. Koster and J. Ross Hanahan. They will leave September 8th and will make an extensive tour to boost the South Carolina port. We are glad to note the commercial activity of our Southern ports, for it means ultimately that the South is going to establish direct commerce with the wrold.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

Charlotte proposes to have a big celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence on the 20th of next May. The Queen City is anxious to have President Wilson as the speaker of the occasion, and we hope he will accept her invitation as a recognition of the patriotism of the Mecklenburg fathers, whether they declared their independence or whether they adopted the historic "resolves" which united North Carolina with the balance of the country in the movement which finally resulted in American independence.

It is worth while to celebrate what was done at Charlotte in May, 1775, whatever place in history may be assigned to the undisputed patriotic action then taken by Mecklenburg's Revolutionary patriots. There is all the proof in the world that the spirit of Independence was manifest in the Mecklenburg of the revolutionary period, and we are sure that all can agree that the memories and deeds of her patriots deserve to be remembered for all time. It is well authenticated history that an eventful occurrence took place at Charlotte in that historic May, nearly 138 years ago, and that it was National in significance. No historian seeks to controvert it, but some differ as to the nature of the event. Whatever was its nature, it is worthy of celebration by all North Carolinians.

Wilmington celebrates May 20th every year because it is the one historic incident that fully identifies North Carolina with the Independence movement that is responsible for this great Republic of more than 100,000,000 united people.

A FIREMAN IN COURT.

Only those who know him best will appreciate fully that little incident in the Cumberland county court house at Fayetteville yesterday, when that doughty fireman, Capt. Jas. D. McNeill, stood up in open court, if it please your honor, and "blessed out" the jury that had brought in a verdict of guilty against him, in a case charging criminal libel because he had said things about State Senator Q. K. Nimocks in the heated campaign last Summer. His friends when they read the news this morning will grin all the way from Manteo to Murphy; and they would have grinned farther than that, doubtless, if the judge had complied with his request that the sentence be changed from a fine to a jail sentence: Provided it would have been brief enough. And Judge Lyon appeared to be within an ace of doing it, too, when Captain McNeill withdrew his request. More than one of his friends will regret that they couldn't have been on hand to hear the captain's description of the jury, for he has an extensive vocabulary, a vigorous delivery and a knack of coupling up words into expressions that are picturesquely strong.

CURRENT COMMENT.

If the express companies retaliate by raising rates on packages which weigh over 20 pounds they will no doubt get away with it for a while, but at the same time they will be promoting the further extension of the parcel post. The experience of other countries, both great and small, shows that there is wide room for extension yet.—Charlotte Observer.

The great natural deposits of saltpeter in Chile (the principal source of commercial supply of this valuable fertilizer) at the rate they are at present drawn upon will be exhausted in the next 40 years. There are smaller deposits in neighboring territory in Peru and Bolivia, and in Humboldt county, Nev., and San Bernardina county, Cal., but not of sufficient importance to meet demand after the Chilean beds are abandoned. Late chemical discoveries, however, point to the possibility of obtaining an artificial production of saltpeter and ammonia from nitrogen and hydrogen. To this end the cheap water power of Norway is being utilized by a German manufacturing company to make saltpeter from air. If the running waters can be thus yoked and made to assist in fertilizing the fields it will prove one of the most notable of late scientific achievements.—Philadelphia Record.

IS ASHEVILLE TO BOLT?

Mountain City May Balk in Freight Rate Fight the Reason.

(The Charlotte Observer.)

Wilmington is taking heart of grace and getting really into the rate reform movement notwithstanding her special relations toward the Atlantic Coast Line. Newbern, as The Sun observes, is now "whole-heartedly behind the movement." So with our other Eastern North Carolina towns. At first the feeling was rather general among them that because the railroad companies could not choose but make somewhat lower rates into them because of their water they had little or no stake in the matter most agitating the public mind. This attitude, however, soon disappeared. It is now quite realized that a railroad policy which prevents goods being handled from the water front except by dray exercises a stifling effect and deprives the points concerned of opportunities justly theirs. Tidewater North Carolina has gazed upon the rates given mountain Virginia with an indignant and wondering eye; there is no comparison at all between the rates based on clouds and dew in Virginia and those touching tidewater (with a remarkable system of safe inland navigation) on our coast. Furthermore, Eastern North Carolina felt and responded to the appeal on behalf of the State as a whole State. Just now the only short-sightedly selfish, separatist, weak-kneed people in evidence are at the State's opposite end.

From the local columns of the Asheville papers we gather, although it is not expressed in just so many words, that no slight disposition exists there to consider above everything else the value of being petted by the railroads as a resort. If only enough advertising is given, enough visitors or tourists are brought, enough excursions are run in, and all that sort of thing, some Asheville people would not care much if economic suffocation befell the State. The concessions offered by the railroads exclusively on rates from the West are a proportionately larger concession to them than to other sections, but even if the case were just opposite not a few would favor deserting at the first fire. In a recent meeting of the Asheville Board of Trade it was the predominant sentiment, as reported by the Asheville papers, that Asheville should cut loose from the Just Freight Rate Association and on no account be placed in the attitude of antagonizing the railroads.

We hope that no such sentiment is strong in any other of our mountain resort towns. We hope that it will not be permitted to control the action of even Asheville; we should hate as a friend to see Asheville crawl so in the dust and confess herself railroad-owned. It doesn't seem that the railroad managers are by any means so petty or that Asheville could not go on prospering even if they were. It is certain, on the other hand, that however little some Asheville people may consider themselves part of North Carolina, Asheville could hardly act as though she were not part of the State without the State ceasing to recognize her as a part in the full and vital sense. Asheville has been far from backward in making calls upon the State for herself and her section; appropriations, offices and other benefits have been sought and received. Nobody expects much help from her in this contest, although she is Governor Craig's home town; but on every account we trust that she will not let craven counsels prevail to the extent of deserting and firing on the State.

NEWBERN'S LABOR DAY.

Indications Point to a Big Celebration Monday—Business Will Close.

Newbern, N. C., Aug. 29.—All indications point to a big celebration of Labor Day, Monday, September 1, in Newbern this year. Not only every manufacturing plant, but every mercantile house and business office has agreed to close up for the day at noon, thereby giving all employees an opportunity to spend an afternoon taking in the horse and motorcycle races at Glenburnie park, which begin at one o'clock.

As for the horses entered in the three races, the following may be mentioned: Billy Boy, owned by A. B. Cox, of Cove City; Billy Hal, owned by T. A. Grantham of Newbern; Belting G., owned by Charles Codd, of Portsmouth; June Boy, owned by Charles Bush, of Pennsylvania; Mary B., owned by Sheriff Reid of Elizabeth City; Princess, owned by Fred Bray, of Newbern; Mary H., owned by Thomas Holton, of Bridgeton; Rockefeller, owned by John Dawson of Jasper.

Daring motorcycle speed kings from this entire section have declared their intention of going after—and they will have to go some—the prize money in the two motorcycle races, one for single cylinder machines, and the other for all machines of more than one cylinder.

Reduced rates will be granted by the Norfolk Southern from Washington, Goldsboro, Oriental, Beaufort, and all intermediate points.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS.

Large Crowds Continue to Attend Greensboro Meeting—Sabbath Day

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 29.—Regular services that consumed the entire day from early morning until late tonight were held again by the Seventh Day Adventists in camp meeting and conference here. There is no decrease in attendance, large crowds from all parts of the city attending the night services, while there is always a fair crowd at all day services. The meeting will go through tomorrow and Sunday, closing with the Sunday night service.

Sabbath observance has been the main them for the last two days. The Adventists believe in the observance of the seventh day, or Saturday, as the Sabbath, and resent laws that prevent them from working on Sunday. Those who hold strictly to the tenets of their faith must lose both Saturday and Sunday from work.

The Independent Ice Company

Wishes to remind the users of Ice that several years ago, when we were the only manufacturers and distributors of Ice in and around Wilmington that we did not attempt to put up the price, but maintained the same old schedul that had been in force years before, although we had every opportunity to name any list of prices we saw fit. This is a cold-blooded fact, as cold and clear as any ice ever made in Wilmington, and is well worth public consideration, for the average Ice Maker would have without any hesitation put up the price, but that has never been the Independent Ice Company's way of doing business.

Two years, or more, ago, we were largely instrumental, through the medium of The Central Ice Company, of which we were large owners, of having a Special Ice Train put on at 6:00 A. M., to serve the Trolley Line patrons, at city prices.

For these considerations, we are not posing as public benefactors. They were simply good business moves, as we saw them. As for ice by other Beach trains than 6:00 A. M., the prices now in effect are the same that have prevailed for years past.

We wish to further remind the public of the superior services, and the full weight deliveries they have this season, the lack of which conditions caused such widespread complaints the past two years, when we were not directly engaged in the city delivery of ice.

That our ice and our services are appreciated is attested by the fact that our sales are 25 % or more greater this Summer than ever before.

Officers of Corporation to Present Proposition to County Commissioners Today—Want Right-of-Way.

The permanent road committee of the Board of County Commissioners composed of Chairman Willard and Commissioners Moore and McGirt, will hold a meeting today for the purpose of receiving from the directors of the Wilmington Beach Corporation a proposition for the purchase of the county construction railroad from Greenfield to the point where the proposed new Carolina Beach macadam road will leave the present improved thoroughfare, a distance of a fraction over six miles.

The directors of the Wilmington Beach Corporation also want to purchase from the county, and if they cannot purchase to lease for 99 years, eight or nine feet of land along the roadway from Greenfield to Wilmington Beach for the trolley line it is proposed to build from the city to Wilmington Beach via Carolina Beach, which adjoins the new development. If there should be any legal barrier to the sale of the right-of-way outright, the promoters of the Wilmington Beach will consider a long term lease of the land. There is no question of the right of the county to sell the railroad, but there may be as to its power to sell the land.

From the point where the Carolina Beach road leaves the present improved highway to Wilmington Beach is a little over seven miles. The directors of the Wilmington Beach Corporation and the officers of the New Hanover Transit Company, which owns Carolina Beach, will make to the County Commissioners a proposition to pay a liberal proportion of the cost of completing the macadamized road to Carolina and Wilmington beaches by June 1st of next year. This will be done in order to get the county to push the work with all possible speed so as to have the road completed by the opening of the 1914 Summer season.

Mr. C. E. Greenamyer, of the Wilmington Beach Corporation, stated yesterday afternoon that if the right-of-way can be secured from the county, either by purchase or long term lease, and the proposition as to the macadam road is accepted, then the electric line will be completed and put in operation by the season of 1914, developing that end of the county to such an extent in a few years that the county will receive in revenue from taxes a large amount by reason of the enhanced value of the property. Many new buildings will go up at the two resorts and that entire section will take on new life. Undoubtedly it would be a big thing for the county.

Mr. Greenamyer was asked as to what kind of trains would be operated on the line. He said that this had not been definitely decided, but the matter had been gone into to some extent. There is a probability that the Southern Power Company will be induced to extend its power to Wilmington from Lumberton and current will be furnished manufacturing plants as well as for the operation of the Wilmington Beach line.

Chairman Willard, of the Board of County Commissioners, stated yesterday that if it is found that there is no legal objection to the proposition and that it is deemed advisable by the board to accept it, that it would be stipulated in the agreement that the road is to be completed and in operation within a specified time. It might also be put in the agreement that the passenger fare and freight rate should not exceed a certain amount. After it is determined whether or not the county has the power to sell or lease the right-of-way and if the members of the board are favorable to the proposition, as it is believed they will be, then the details of the agreement will be entered into by the Commissioners and the directors of the Wilmington Beach Corporation.

The county has a right-of-way of 40 feet for highway. Some nine or ten feet of this is macadamized. At present the other portion of the road that is graded is occupied by the construction railroad. When it is removed the county will have a roadway of 18 or 20 feet in width. If the space now occupied by the railroad is to continue to be used for the railroad it will be brought to the same grade as the roadway and will be macadamized in between the tracks, so that it may be used as part of the thoroughfare. Then if it is desired to make the road still wider there is room for widening the thoroughfare on the east side of the present macadam road.

Chairman Willard stated that some time ago he went to see the Tidewater Power Co. and the New Hanover Transit Company and told them that the county was arranging to remove the track on the Federal Point road and that if either wanted to purchase the property the Commissioners would be glad to entertain a bid. Neither company desired the property and Mr. R. A. Burnett, superintendent of the roads, began tearing up the track, beginning at the far end several miles from the point where the Carolina Beach road branches off. The work of removing the track had reached a point near the Carolina Beach road when the proposition was made yesterday by the Wilmington Beach Corporation.

The Wilmington Beach Corporation has been at work quietly for some months making surveys and securing rights-of-way for a line to Wilmington Beach via Carolina Beach. Surveys have been made from Wilmington to the beach and maps have been prepared of the entire section. It is the purpose of the company to build a line to the beach. If the deal can be made with the county it will only hasten the construction of the road with its resultant benefit to the county.

It is not improbable that the proposition of the Wilmington Beach Corporation will come up for definite action by the Board of Commissioners at the regular meeting Monday afternoon.

WILMINGTON BAPTIST UNION

Regular Session Began at Masonboro Church Yesterday and Will Continue Through Tomorrow. Large Attendance.

With a large attendance of delegates for the first day, the regular session of the Wilmington Baptist Union began at the Masonboro Baptist church yesterday morning and will continue through Sunday. All the Wilmington Baptist churches were represented by one or more delegates in addition to the pastors. The attendance today is expected to be larger than it was yesterday.

The opening sermon was preached by Rev. W. M. Craig, assistant pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, whose text was taken from the fifth chapter and the sixth verse of Hosea: "They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Jehovah; but they shall not find Him; He hath withdrawn Himself from them." "Finding Go", was his subject and he preached a very able sermon.

This was followed by organization of the Union, Mr. Geo. E. Leftwich, of Wilmington, being elected moderator, and Rev. J. A. Sullivan, assistant pastor of Brooklyn Baptist church, assistant moderator. Mr. W. F. Strickland, of Wrightsboro, was elected clerk and treasurer. The meeting then adjourned for dinner, a most appetizing one, which was served on the church grounds.

The Union reconvened at 1:30 P. M., when the first topic on the programme was discussed: "Denominational Union; What Stand Must We as Baptists Take", was the topic and it was discussed by Rev. W. G. Hall, pastor of Southside Baptist church, and Mr. J. S. Canady. "Our Local Mission Work; Its Peculiar Need," was the other topic for the day and it was discussed by Rev. E. J. Harrell, of Seagate, and Mr. D. L. Gore, of Wilmington.

The meeting this morning will open with devotional exercises conducted by Rev. R. F. Hall, pastor of Wells Chapel. The programme for today follows:

10:20 A. M.—"Worldliness in Our Churches and How Can It be Overcome?" Rev. R. E. Peele, Rev. W. G. Moore, Rev. W. H. Barnes, C. D. Weeks, Esq.

RESTORES PLEASING PLUMPNESS

Samose Sold Under J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. "No Cure No Pay" Plan.

There are a good many people in Wilmington who ardently wish they could find some way of getting fat and plump. While not ill, yet they are so thin and scrawny that their friends think they cannot be well. In nine cases out of ten this condition can be readily overcome by using the combination of flesh-forming foods known as Samose. This little tablet does wonders in building up good health and restoring the pleasing plumpness that is so desirable.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. is the agency for this preparation and sells it with the promise that if it does not do all that is claimed for it in making people gain in weight and in health, the money will be refunded.

You certainly can afford to try a 50c box on this plan, as Samose will cost you nothing unless it gives satisfaction.

MUST RATIFY AGREEMENT

Council Called to Meet This Morning to Receive Report of Committee Named to Confer With Board of Health.

Holding that the special committee was appointed merely for the purpose of conferring with a committee from the Board of Health as to the terms under which the scavenging might be taken over by the city, with no power to act beyond making recommendations to the Council, and contending further that before the agreement entered into Thursday between the members of the joint committee can become binding on the city, it must be ratified at a meeting of the Council, Mayor Moore yesterday issued a call for a special meeting of that body to be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning.

The special committee composed of Councilmen Merritt, Chadwick and Loughlin will be expected to make report at this meeting of the result of the conference with the committee from the Board of Health with recommendations as to the action it may desire Council to take.

Very likely the recommendation of the committee will be a request for the adoption of the agreement which was entered into Thursday between the members of the joint committee whereby the city is to take over the scavenging work.

If the Council ratifies the action of the special committee the scavenging equipment will be turned over to the city tonight by the Board of Health, accompanied by a communication from Chairman Willard, of the Board of Health giving an inventory of the equipment.

It is said that there is likely to develop at the meeting today some opposition to the agreement entered into by the committee from the Council wit the committee from the Board of Health.

Mr. Jas. E. Holton, of the city street cleaning department, called at the office of the County Board of Helath yesterday morning and stated that as he had been assigned the supervision of the scavenging work for the city he would like to get all the information on the subject he could before undertaking the work. Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, the superintendent, and Chairman M. S. Willard, of the Board of Health, were present when he called, and Dr. Nesbitt took great pleasure in going into the matter quite throughly with Mr. Holton. He also explained to Mr. Holton a plan by which the city could be districted so that the work could be done with a maximum of efficiency with at minimum cost. Dr. Nesbitt told Mr. Holton that it would be the policy of the health department to co-operate with the city forces and would be glad to render any assistance he could personally or through his assistants.

After he had got from Dr. Nesbitt some idea of the magnitude of the work that is being taken over by the city Mr. Holton remarked that it was "some big heap" of a job, but he thought it could be operated very successfully through the street department.

Mayor Moore yesterday wrote a letter to Councilman T. W. Wood, who is at Southport, advising him of the meeting this morning. Councilman Wood is expected to arrive this morning on the train from Southport in time for the meeting.

It is estimated that the health department will cost the city about $18,000 a year after it has been relved of the scavenging work. The original appropriation for the year was $31,790. When the city and county relieved of paying its proportion of the amount appropriated for scavenging work the amount that it will take to run the health department is about $22,000. The city's fourth-fifths of this will be around $18 000.

BOY PROBABLY DROWNED.

Clothes Found at Rock Quarry Yesterday, But No Clue to Owner.

That some boy was drowned this week in the large pool of water at the rock quarry near Bellevue cemetery is the supposition of Chief of Police Williams, who was yesterday morning notified by one of the guards of the convict camp that the clothes of a boy had been found lying on the ground near the water. Chief Williams immediately sent Officer T. M. Hall to make an investigation, but he was unable to find any trace of the owner. He also notified Sheriff Cowan, who made an investigation of the matter, but did not learn of any boy being missing.

The clothes found were a pair of blue trousers, a blue shirt, a cap and a belt. There was also an undershirt. There were three fish lying near the clothes which had evidently been caught for some time. Officer Hall thought that the clothes must have belonged to a boy 12 or 13 years of age.

It is supposed that the boy went in bathing and was drowned. It is very probable that it was a colored boy, and this would easily account for the fact that there has been no notice sent of a boy of this size having been missing, as it is said that frequently colored boys stay away from their homes for weeks at a time. There are also many who have no home.

The water covers a considerable space and is said to be 20 feet deep in some places. The necessary facilities for dredging the pond were lacking yesterday, and this was not done, but unless the ownership of the clothes can be established it is probable that this will be done today. In the meantime the clothes have been left at the place where they were found. The officers will very much appreciate any information that any person may be able to give them.

FUNERAL OF MRS. BONEY.

The body of Mrs. Mary A. Boney, who died at the family home, No. 314 Red Cross street, Thursday morning, was taken to Wallace yesterday morning on the 8:30 train. The funeral was held from the Presbyterian church at 11 o'clock, conducted by the pastor, Rev. M. P. H. Currie. A large concourse of friends attended the services, and there were many beautiful floral offerings. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Claude Murray, L. A. Underwood, Robert Clement, John Farrow, Herbert Boney and I. N. Henderson, all of Wilmington.

AID FOR WORTHY FAMILY

Salvation Army Asks Assistance Which Will Doubtless be Forthcoming Today—Funds Short in Summer Time.

The popular impression is that very little charity work is necessary in the Summer time and consequently the various charitable organizations find it hard sometimes, even among as charitable people as are those of Wilmington, to answer all the demands that are made upon them. Then, too, a great many of the supporters of these institutions are away during the Summer months. So when unusually heavy demands are made upon the charitable organizations in the Summer they are "put to it" to care for all.

Just at this time the Salvation Army has an urgent case that needs attention today and the officers in charge of the post, Adjutant and Mrs. Mataxas, are certain that when their attention is called to the need the generous and charitably inclined people of Wilmington will see to it that everything necessary is supplied, hence they are making this appeal through The Star this morning.

The Salvation Army has been called upon for an unusually large amount of help this Summer, especially during the past few days. There has been much sickness among the poorer classes and it has been necessary for them to seek aid. These heavy demands on the Army coming at a time when the income is small has just about depleted the treasure.

The family that is the particular object of the Army at this time has had done for it all that is required in ordinary cases. This one is different from the usual run. Four months ago this woman was deserted by her husband who went away as he said, in search of work and has never written her a word or sent her a message of any sort since he departed. She was left with four small children to provide for the oldest being six years old and the youngest only six months old. They have nothing and the future looks very dark indeed to the mother. She is willing and anxious to get out and work for her livelihood and that of her children, but how can she with the four little ones demanding all her time and attention. Her rent is now several months overdue and her landlord has served notice that the house has been rented to other parties and she must vacate at once. The landlord is willing to cancel the rent bill provided she gets out immediately. She has no place to go and people knowing her circumstances are not liable to rent her a house, there being little prospects of her being able to pay the rent.

"It is our purpose," said Mrs. Mataxas last night, "to set the woman and her children up in another house with rent paid for at least two months in advance and secure clothing for the children and provisions to last the family for a while. I am sure that there are many people who would like to contribute money, garments or provisions for this worthy but destitute family."

Those desiring to make contributions of money, old clothing or provisions are asked to call telephone No. 1185-J or Wrightsville No. 25-J, and some one from the Salvation Army will be sent for the donation. Anything will be gratefully received by the Army in behalf of the needy family.

"We have a number of similar cases," said Mrs. Mataxas, "but this is the most urgent one. I visited three families in needy circumstances and we have given such relief as we could. A great many of our friends and supporters are out of the city for the Summer and owing to the frequent calls lately our funds are running very low."

Mrs. Mataxas said that she would like for some of the charitably inclined of the city, those who desire to do all they can for the poor, to go with the Army officers on some of their visits either in the Summer or Winter and they will be convinced of the great need for charitable work here.

FIVE SUITS STARTED.

Yesterday Was Last Day for Cases Returnable at September Term.

Yesterday being the last day on which suits could be started and made returnable at the September term of court, which begins on the 8th, five suits were instituted in Superior Court as follows:

Given Preliminary Hearing.

William Foy, colored, was arrested several days ago on a charge of violating the prohibition law, had a hearing before Justice Harriss yesterday. Decision was reserved until Tuesday, of next week. It was shown in the trial that he had received by express a trunk which it is alleged contained 12 gallons of whiskey. The trunk was shipped to Castle Haynes, and was turned over to Foy on the 24th of this month.

THE HOME FOR SAVINGS PAYS 4 PER CENT interest, compounded quarterly. See illustration of Dime Nailer herewith and listen to some good reasons why the dime is the logical coin to save, viz:—

1—The Dime is the smallest coin and, consequently, the easiest to lose out of the purse.

2—The Dime is a unit best adapted for methodical daily savings by wage-earners, because none should save less than one a day, and but few can save more than twenty a day.

3—The Dime is, as a rule, received in change daily by the average person in just about the proportion that he should save from his pocket money.

It is understood that there are a number of changes among the deputies in this district scheduled to take place somewhere about the first of the month if the certifications of the results of the recent examinations here are made by that time, so that there will be a list of eligible Democrats from which Mr. Bailey can pick deputies that he desires to bring into the service.

NAVY OFFICIALS INCENSED.

Maryland Authority Let Criminal Off If He Joined Navy.

Washington, Aug. 29.—Navy Department officials are greatly incensed over the action of a Maryland State attorney and deputy sheriffs in allowing a youth convicted of theft to escape punishment by enlisting in the navy.

Secretary Daniels today addressed a letter to Governor Goldsborough denouncing the action of the State officers and informing the Governor that the navy no longer is "a botany bay" for the punishment of culprits.

Referring to the high standard of character prevailing in the enlisted personnel, the Secretary said it would be necessary to discharge the man in question and asked whether the Maryland authorities wanted him turned over to them. According to the reports to the department, the youth enlisted in Baltimore recently after a deputy sheriff had accompanied him to the recruiting station and posed as his mother's friend. Names were withheld by the department.

A "Broncho Billy" picture is the leading feature at the Lumina moving picture exhibition tonight. THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Prayer for Judgment Continued in the Case of J. Campbell.

The Recorder yesterday decided to continue prayer for judgment upon payment of the costs in the case of J. Campbell, the white man charged with beating his wife. He was required to give bond in the sum of $100 for his appearance before the Recorder on the first of each month for 12 months, and show that he has been of good behavior. This action was taken, the Recorder stated, in view of the fact that he had a wife and several children dependent upon him for a living.

Tony Kostelos, a young Greek, charged with selling cigarettes to a minor, was found not guilty on account of being under age. According to the evidence it appeared that the boy was selling cigarettes in his father's place of business, and that he had sold them contrary to his father's instructions when he sold them to young boys.

Mr. D. R. Foster, charged with using an automobile without a tail light, was found not guilty, as it appeared that it was through no fault of his that the lights were not burning as he had lost the lamp somewhere along the streets. The case against Mr. C. S. Burnett, charged with a similar offense, was dismissed. The cases against Chas. Daniels and Hugh Hinnant, charged with riding bicycles without lights, were dismissed.

Judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs in the case against John Martin, colored, charged with draying without license. Joe Nagles, charged with being drunk, was fined $5 and the costs in default of the payment of which he was ordered sent to the roads for 22 days.

Regardless of Damage Occasioned by Recent Fire Aboard Vessel.

New York, Aug. 29.—It was reiterated today by Hamburg-American line officials that the fire aboard the steamship Imperator yesterday had not made the vessel unseaworthy, notwithstanding the fact that the flames raged for more than five hours in the provision room of the after hold.

Although it was a hard fire to control and particularly deplorable because of the death of Second Officer Carl Gobrecht, who was suffocated while fighting the flames, no vital part of the great vessel was injured, and the vessel will sail on regular schedule time tomo tomorrow.

COTTON MARKET UNSETTLED

Heavy Realizing During the Week's Trading—Little Change in General Character of Crop and Weather News.

New York, Aug. 29.—The cotton market was unsettled by heavy realizing during today's trading. With American futures markets closed from tonight until next Tuesday morning, and with the government's September condition figures due at noon on that day, the disposition to take profits on recent purchases was not considered unnatural, and bullishly disposed traders claimed that fresh buying for long account was restricted to some extent by the approaching holidays. Offerings were well enough taken by bull support and covering to give the market a steady undertone at a decline of 15 to 18 points from the closing figures of last night, however, and the final tone was steady at a net loss of 10 points.

There was little or no change in the general character of the news. Weather advices indicated less immediate prospect for showers in the Southwest than yesterday and while the forecast was for cooler weather, temperatures were high again today. Further scattering reports of deterioration were received from the Southwest and from some points in the Eastern belt, also while private condition reports were about in line with recent figures. Of two such reports reported, one made the condition 69.9 against 81.8 last month, while the other placed it at 71.4. Private reports so far issued have pointed to a crop deterioration of about 10 per cent or to a government condition of around 69 to 70 per cent next Tuesday. Liverpool reported a good spot demand. The local market opened steady at a decline of 13 points on August and of 4 to 5 points on new crop months. There was very little trading in August, which went off quietly at midday, while new crop positions sold off under scattering selling for a reaction.

Spot cotton, quiet. Middling uplands, 12.50; middling gulf, 12.75; sales, 2,000.

BRADSTREET'S REVIEW.

Reports Generally Suggest More Irregularity in Trading.

New York, Aug. 29.—Bradstreets' tomorrow will say:

"In some respects trade reports suggest somewhat more irregularity. Western advices indicate conservative buying, but at the same time they proclaim that trade is equal to, or in excess of that done at this time last year. On the other hand the more important eastern markets, particularly those having to do with textiles, display more vim, house trade has enlarged and mills, instead of making concession, are insisting upon higher prices.

"Incidentally, there are few dissenting notes as to the outlook for Fall trade and advices as to low stocks are well nigh unanimous; but conservatism is likely to be practiced in sections where crops fall short of earlier expectations.

"Wheat, including flour exports from the United States and Canada for the week aggregate 4 702,480 bushels against 3,545,134 last year."

THE WEEKLY COTTON REVIEW

Market Displayed Great Activity During The Past Week With Prices Making New High Records—Crop Reports.

New York, Aug. 29.—The cotton market has been very active during the past week with prices making new high records, owing to continued unfavorable crop reports and a broadening demand for long account. The highest level was reached on Thursday, following reports from Washington that the cotton futures amendment to the tariff bill would probably be materially modified by a reduction in the proposed tax, and while there was heavy realizing for over the Labor Day adjournment, the close today was within 15 or 20 points of the best. The continued dry, hot weather in the southwest seems to have been largly rsponsible for the reduction in estimates of the crop.

Private condition figures issued during the week have indicated a falling off in the prospect of about 10 per cent. during August, thus suggesting a government report at noon next Thursday, of between 69 and 70 per cent. Such a condition would compare with 79.6 last month, 74.8 in 1911 and a ten year average of 74.7 per cent. According to a statement recently published by Washington authorities would indicate a crop of under 14,00,000 bales on this year's estimated area of 35,622, acres.

Many local bulls seemed inclined to admit that the advance of the week had prepared the speculative trade for a low September figure, but based their predictions of still higher prices on the ground that the would spinners had not yet accepted the reduced views of the crop. Expectations that further evidences of a disappointing crop might bring manufacturers into the market consequently seemed to be one of the chief inspirations on the bull side, while bearish operators were talking a reduced short interest, the increasing new crop movement, and still contended that large eastern belt crops would partly offset western belt deterioration.

STOCK TRADING CURTAILED

Speculation Failed to Maintain Brisk Pace of The Previous Day—Recent Gains Well Held.

New York, Aug. 29.—Speculation failed to maintain today the brisk pace set yesterday, although recent gains were well held. In the absence of definite news from Mexico and with no striking developments in any other quarter, incentive for active trading was lacking. The approach of a triple holiday tended still further to curtail dealings.

With smelting, steel and the coalers in the lead, highest prices of the present movement were reached. Later in the day, the list moved slowely downward with increased heaviness toward the close. American Ice, which lost a large part of its recent rise, New York, and New Haven showed heaviness.

Improvement of the investment market is indicated in the ready absorption of recent bond and note offerings. Although no figures regarding subscriptions to Union Pacific holding of Southern Pacific will be available next week, the success of the offering was said today to be assured. Known movements of currency for the week indicated a smaller cash loss for the banks than was expected, cutting down the apparent loss to about $4,000 000.

The bond market was irregular. Toledo, St. Louis and Western 4s rose five points and later lost the advance. Total sales, par value $1,417,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales were 291,400 shares including: A. C. L. 100; C. & O. 1200; Lehigh 1600; L. & N. 200; N. & W. ex-dvidend 100; Reading 42,600; S. A. L. 200; Southern railway 100; Southern railway preferred 100; T. C. 13000; U. S. Steel 66,300; V. C. C. 100.

representative to return to Mexico City for the purpose of arranging a compromise on the proposals of the United States, Mr. Bryan said:

"Mr. Lind is still at Vera Cruz. How long he will remain there and whether he will go to Mexico City for further negotiations, "I am not prepared to say. That is something that has not been decided.

Lind to Sail for U. S.

Mexico City, Aug. 29.—John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative, let it be understood tonight that he will not return to Mexico City except on special invitation of President Huerta. He probably will take passage for the United States on the next Ward Line steamer sailing from this port.

Rear Admiral Fletcher entertained Mr. Lind at tea on board the battleship Louisiana this afternoon. Eleven American refugees sailed from Vera Cruz today on the City of Tampico for New Orleans.

Mexico's Attitude.

Mexico City, Aug. 29.—The failure of John Lind, personal representative of President Wilson to return to the capital from Vera Cruz is taken here to indicate that Washington and Mexico are agreed on one thing at least, namely, "that there is no good being accomplished by the trip.' The Mexican government has made no further proposal or concession to the United States. It is considered here that the next move must be made by Washington.

Officials here today viewed the situation more brightly because of the flotation of 12,000,000 pesos loan which was taken by three local banks, the National, the Bank of London, and Mexico, and the Banco de Commerciol Industria.

Exodus Continues.

The exodus of Americans from the capital on account of President Wilson's warning to them to leave the country was greater today than on Thursday. Many persons appeared inclined to doubt the judgment of the administration in its statement that the fighting would become sharper as a result of cutting off of the supplies of ammunition.

Many Americans today sent private telegrams to friends in Washington in an effort to get more specific information concerning President Wilson's warning.

Consul General Shanklin's office again today was besieged by anxious Americans, the majority of whom sought information regarding the President's warning. A large number of them, however, availed themselves of the opportunity to secure from the consul general transportation to the United States.

GETTYSBURG COMMISSION.

Makes Report to Governor of Investigations on Battlefield.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 29.—The Gettysburg Battle Commission will speddily prepare an elaborate and complete documentroy history of North Carolina's part in that great battle of the "Lost Cause" and issue it under the authority of the act of the recent Legislature creating the commission. The commission will collect from every possible source evidence to substantiate North Carolina's claims and will appeal to participants in this battle, to put in the form of affifavits, their recollections of the parts performed by their respective regiments and send these to Secretary R. D. W. Conner, of the commission, at Raleigh. The commission hopes in this way to establish beyond cavil the claims of North Carolina that her troops bore the brunt of the first day's fighting, suffered greater losses during the three day's battle than did the troops of any other State, and advanced further than any other troops, in Longstreet's assault on July 3rd.

In a preliminary report just submitted to Governor Craig the commission sets out that in relays the members of the commission visited the battleground during the period of June 19th to July 3rd and went over the ground very thoroughly and had no difficulty in identifying the several points and positions on the battle field where North Carolina soldiers marched and fought, and are satisfied of the justice of North Carolina's claims. They carried temporary markers to Gettysburg to be placed at these points for the great reunion of the Blue and the Gray but the Gettysburg National Park commission declined to permit the markers to be placed, not because there are charges that the North Carolina's claims are not accurate and true but under the general rules that control the placing such markets, there not being this just before the opening of the reunion to settle the matter and conform to the regulations.

The commission declares in the report to the Governor that justice to North Carolina troops and proper regard for truth of history entitles the state to erect these memorials and markers and its purpose to make further effort to have them placed in proper positions on the battlefield. To this end the matter will be taken up with the Federal authorities and prepare full statement with affidavits, maps and official reports to sustain their claims.

CHARLETON ON TO GENOA

Italian Physician Says Wife-Murederer Has Morals of an Infant.

Naples, Aug. 29.—Porter Charlton, who has been extradited from the United States to stand trial on a charge of murdering his wife, Mrs. Mary Scott Castle Charlton, continued the voyage to Genoatoday, guarded by two members of the Italian military police. Charlton remained in his cabin before the vessel sailed and refused to see anybody.

Captain Procacini, an Italian army physician, accompanied the party to Genoa. He says he believes that the cynicism attributed to Charlton after the body of his wife was found in Lake Como was not cynicism, but the action of a person endowned with only the mind and morals of an infant.

GUILFORD HERMIT DEAD.

Death Found Peculiar Character Alone in His Cabin—Big Warehouse.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., Aug. 29.—Robert T. Smith, who lived hermit-like by himself in an old house, six miles north of the city, was found dead in his room last evening. There was no evidence of foul play, but the man had been dead two or three days before the body was discovered. He was last seen Sunday afternoon.

The discovery of the body was a result of a visit of a neighbor boy to the place on horseback. When the horse was a few yards from the house, he suddenly stopped, sniffed the air and refused to go an inch farther. The boy also noticed flies about one of the windows. He called in some neighbors, entrance was gained to the house and the man was found dead. A telephone message to Greensboro called the sheriff and some deputies to the place. They examined the body and came to the conclusion the man died from natural causes. Coroner Wood was away and no inquest was held. Three pocketbooks were found in the man's clothing, but all together they contained only about $1 in money. The funeral was held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Lee's Chapel. The man lived alone, kept no stock, and once a week walked to Greensboro, where he bought groceries already prepared for eating and his mail. The property on which he lived had been divided some time ago, and his part sold. It is supposed that the money he received for same is in some local bank.

A big meeting of women of Greensboro and the county was held here yesterday when plans were set on foot for the baby contest that is to be held in Greensboro during the Central Carolina fair in October. The preliminary examination of babies will be closed September 25th in West Market street church annex, when it will be decided which babies shall be placed on exhibit at the fair. A committee will then be named to pass on the babies at the fair and prizes will be offered in two classes; one set of prizes for babies fro one to two years old and another for babies from two to three years of age.

The Greensboro Warehouse & Storage Company, which recently bought the old finishing mill property, is planning to make of this city one of the largest cotton markets in the South. It is now second in size in the State, except Wilmington, which is a port. The finishing mill property has been fitted up for warehouse purposes, equipped with automatic sprinklers. So fine is the fire-fighting apparatus installed that the insurance rate is only 1-5 of 1 per cent. In addition to this the company has built this year a big concrete warehouse on the Atlantic & Yadkin tracks. It now has storage room for 300,000 bales, or more than $2,000,000 worth of cotton. The favorable location and the splendid facilities of the concern are attracting attention of cotton sellers and buyers over the entire South.

Negotiations are under way to make the main buildings of the finishing mill either a hosiery or a silk mill, but neither plan has sufficiently developed to make any definite announcement.

Justice Minor yesterday afternoon bound over to Superior Court without bail Ed Hargis, negro, charged with the murder of his son, Lambeth Hargis. The son, Lambeth, died at the county home this week after suffering for five days from a gunshot wound inflicted by the father.

WAKE FOREST NEWS NOTES

Thirty of the Thirty-Two Law Students Passed Examinations.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Wake Forest, N. C., Aug. 29.—The Summer Law School of Wake Forest College was one of the most successful in the history of the college there being an enrollment of 42, out of this number 32 went before the Supreme Court to try for their license, and 30 were successful in the examination.

The services at the church Sunday morning the 24th were, according to custom, directed to the interests of the law class. Rev. W. N. Johnson, pastor of the church, made a short but very impressive talk, Dr. Poteat spoke a few words in behalf of the college. He was followed in an able address by Prof. N. Y. Gulley, dean of the law department. The services were very impressive throughout, especially was Prof. Gulley's exhortation on the subject of faith, one that embraced many noble thoughts which, if applied by the young men to whom they were addressed, will be of lasting benefit to them.

The ground has been broken for the new dormitory, which will be located just west of the Alumni building. The work will be rushed as rapidly as possible as more rooms are badly needed.

Considerable changes have been made in the Gymnasium building much of the old furniture having been torn away and replaced with new and more modern fixtures.

Several of the students have already come in, although the session does not open until the 2nd of September. The prospects for the coming year are the best the college has ever had.

TAR HEEL SAILORMEN.

Naval Militia "Doing" New York—Are Detailed on Battleship Alabama.

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 29.—According to a telegram received from a local member of the battalion, many Tarheel sailors are today turned loose in New York city and are doing the sights of the town. They comprise about a dozen officers and several hundred men of the North Carolina Naval Reserves, the six divisions of which are located in as many seacoast towns of the State. Capt. C. D. Bradham, of Newbern, is with the battalion, which together with the Illinois naval militia, put to sea Monday on the battleship Alabama. They are under the orders of the Alabama's captain, and are messed with the regular crew, while the lieutenants and ensigns of the irregular sailors are guests in the ship's wardroom. The militiamen wear the distinguishing anchor within a diamond but otherwise cannot be told from the regular seamen. They will spend two or three days in the metropolis, after which gunnery practice will be had off the New England coast. The North Carolian reserve includes many good sailors and a number of ex-navy men. A champion gunner is among them. This is the first trip that the battalion has made on a first-class ship.

New York, Aug. 29.—Fire swept the petroleum carrying ship Burgenmeister Hackman on the Brooklyn water front last night, destroying thousands of tins of oil and leaving the vessel a shell apparently ready to sink at her dock any moment. The property damage was about $200,000.

ALLEN AND STANFORD HONORED

Portraits of Two Noted Carolinians to Be Unveiled in Duplin County.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 29.—Portraits of two illustrious sons of that county will be placed upon the walls of the courtroom in the new courthouse at Kenansville, Duplin county, on Monday of the second week of a term of Superior Court to be held there soon.

Col. William D. Allen and J. D. Stanford are the distinguished men to be remembered by their countymen. Superior Court Judge O. H. Allen, of Kinston, who will preside over the court then in session, and Justice W. R. Allen, of the State Supreme Court bench, sons of the late Colonel Allen, will be present at the exercises. Colonel Allen was an able lawyer and practiced for many years in Duplin and adjoining counties, and was for some time a partner of Willian J. Houston, a Confederate captain who was killed in the War Between the States. Mr. Stanford was for years Duplin's representative in the Legislature and a political leader of renown. The portraits are the work of Mrs. Marshall Williams of Faison, N. C., one of the South's best-known artists.

STORE ROBBED OF $250.

Wilson Market Sells 150,000 Pounds Tobacco—Farmer Sells Booze.

Wilson, N. C., Aug. 29.—According to telephonic information received here Thursday afternoon, the large general store of the Lucas-Bass Company was entered by burglars sometime between midnight Wednesday and daylight Thursday. Merchandise to the value of $250 was taken. The burglars entered through a rear window. Bloodhounds were sent to the scene from Tarboro and a posse of officers are on the trail of the robbers. Last night the report was that the trail led in the direction of Simms, a station on the line of the Norfolk Southern.

The local tobacco market yesterday resulted in the sale of about 150,000 pounds of the leaf and the price remains at an average of 17 cents. The buyers expect the lower grades of tobacco to remain at the present prices, which are considerably above last year. The better grades are also selling well. Yesterday several parties had tobacco on the market brought more than 40 miles.

John Lucas, a white farmer, was arrested yesterday, charged with selling a half pint of whiskey to J. H. Hill. It is alleged that the sale was made at a local tobacco warehouse. Lucas gave bond for appearance at court next week.
